LEGAL EDUCATION EXPERIENCE

DEAN AND PROFESSOR OF LAW
University of Pacific, McGeorge School of Law
Sacramento, California
July 2017 to Present

- Oversaw creation of new, required experiential mentoring program for first-year law students in which students work through a standardized process with judges and lawyers matched with students based on the students' interests
- Oversaw creation of new requirement that all students complete two clinic or externship experiences
- Secured two book contracts (Carolina Academic Press) for McGeorge faculty
- Oversaw remodel of law school's orientation into an extra week of one of the students' regular 1L classes
- Oversaw creation of two online MSL degrees
- Oversaw creation of the only law school-based undergraduate study abroad program
- Led the single largest fundraising year (in terms of dollars raised) in the law school's history (ongoing)
- Created and taught entirely online class in Law Teaching
- Named a CLEO EDGE Honoree in Education (2018)

University of Arkansas at Little Rock, William H. Bowen School of Law
Little Rock, Arkansas
July 2013 to June 2017

- Oversaw curriculum reforms that included establishing a clinic or externship requirement (making the law school one of only 35 or so law schools with such a requirement and one of the few with a part-time program), a required professionalism course, an innovative clinic serving Arkansas' Delta region, the law school's first certificate program (in business law), and a required, upper-level, practice-focused, legal and factual research course
- Oversaw overhaul of law school's admissions and admitted student yield efforts, resulting in yield rates among the top-10 in the nation according to US News and, for the Fall 2016 class, a 23% increase in applications and enrollment with LSAT and UGPA gains at the 25th and 50th percentiles
- Oversaw implementation of a systematic outcomes assessment program
- Oversaw overhaul of the law school's academic support and bar pass programs
- Secured two Harvard University Press book contracts and four Carolina Academic Press book contracts for Bowen faculty members
- Oversaw creation of new, required mentoring program for first-year law students in which students work through a standardized process with judges and lawyers matched with students based on the students' interests (each student drafts and gets feedback on a personal mission, career development plan, and a resume and completes 11 hours of shadowing activities)
- Successfully managed the law school budget such that, in the face of declining enrollment and reduced state funding, the law school's reserve grew by ~40%

- Envisioned and planned law school's first Community-Engaged Research Summit, an event for judges, lawyers, legislators and seeking to develop research collaborations among the law school, UALR's College of Social Science and Communication, and the community
- Envisioned, planned, and coordinated law school's hosting of Arkansas' first ever Legal Hack-a-Thon, an event bringing together lawyers, computer programmers, law students, and law professors to construct computer applications and websites to solve significant legal problems
- Developed collaborative relationships with law schools in Taiwan, Poland, and Mexico
- Oversaw remodel of law school's orientation into an extra week of one of the students' regular 1L classes
- Created no-credit summer writing course for entering law students as recruitment and student success initiative
- Established new part-time writing advisor position to help students identified as needing extra help in legal writing classes
- Designed and co-taught required Professionalism and the Work of Lawyers course for first-year students, a course that includes training in teamwork skills, interpersonal communication, and cultural sensibility
- Created new faculty committee focused on diversity issues, resulting in a series of forums focusing on difference and the creation of new events to support our minority students
- Served as founding faculty advisor for and funded student organization designed to promote rural practice (pending projects include: summer rural internships, creation of rural practice incubator, and networking events for retiring attorneys to meet graduating students interested in rural practice)
- Created new student-service focused initiative, "Hands-on Help"
- Established UALR Bowen as a Third Sponsoring Institution of the Institute for Law Teaching and Learning, hosting conferences and generating approximately $60,000 in ILTL-based revenue
- Awarded 2016 E. Smythe Gambrell Award for Professionalism Programs for the law school's comprehensive professionalism curriculum
- Ranked 2016's Ninth Most Influential Person in Legal Education in National Jurist Magazine's list of "Most Influential People in Legal Education" (ranked in the top 15 in 2014 and 2015)
- Secured nearly $1,500,000 in gifts in last 12 months (one of the law school's best years since its founding in 1974), including a $1,000,000 gift to launch a business innovation law clinic
