Program Overview

The LL.M. in Transnational Business Practice at University of the Pacific's McGeorge School of Law, trains lawyers, whether they are educated in civil law or common law jurisdictions, to practice in the field of international business law, preparing them for a career in the global economy.

McGeorge offers a unique program with two different tracks:

- LL.M. in Transnational Business Practice - Two semesters(full-time) or three/four semesters (part-time) of study on the McGeorge Campus.
- LL.M. in Transnational Business Practice with Internship -One semester of study on the McGeorge Campus and the opportunity to participate in a 12-week internship with an international law firm.

Students in this program benefit from:

- Real practical experience
- Classes with J.D. Students
- The opportunity to tailor their course selection to meet your career goals
- McGeorge's broad base of alumni who work in international law firms in more than 40 countries
